Overview

Edward has a broad practice in commercial litigation and arbitration, spanning the range of Chambers' work. He has particular expertise in high value, complex disputes relating to civil fraud, banking, international trade and energy and commodities. Edward is comfortable working as part of counsel teams of different sizes and is regularly instructed as sole counsel in the Commercial Court and Chancery Division.

Edward acted for the Republic in The Republic of Mozambique v Credit Suisse and others; Commercial Court proceedings worth at least US$3 billion concerning the enforceability of sovereign guarantees in the wake of the 'Tuna Bond' scandal, raising issues of conspiracy, bribery, dishonest assistance and knowing receipt, and state immunity. The three-month trial of the dispute was one of The Lawyer's Top 20 Cases for 2023.

From January to April 2020, Edward worked as a judicial assistant in the Commercial Court to Mr Justice Andrew Baker and Mr Justice Foxton. He worked on a variety of interlocutory and injunctive hearings as well as applications under the Arbitration Act and a full trial (e.g. Pipia v BGEO Group [2020] 1 WLR 2582; Mohamed v Breish [2020] EWHC 696 (Comm), School Facility Management Ltd v Governing Body of Christ the King College [2020] PTSR 1913). He has also spent six months on secondment at a leading City litigation boutique.
